PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents/Whanau,

This week in New Zealand and at school is Bully Free Week. At Lakeview we are not looking at this as a one off event, as we do our best to ensure that all matters of bullying are addressed, regardless of what week of the year it is. A lot of time is spent on systems and processes that focus on recognising the positive things that happen at our school, while also ensuring that there are consequences that address poor choices. We are by no means perfect, but we will always do our very best to ensure that all Lakeview School students are in a safe environment to work and thrive with their learning. On Friday we will be having a mufti-day to raise funds for bully free services and programmes. This is a pink shirt day, but if you don't have a shirt another item of clothing will be fine, be it a jacket, shorts, or even pink hair for the day. We would love you to support us with such a worthy cause.

Nancy Smith Farewell

Next Friday, May 25, we will be holding a farewell assembly for Nancy Smith starting at 9.45am. Nancy has been an amazing servant for Lakeview School and, prior to the merge, Lansdowne School, having taught hundreds of students over many years. It has been some time since Nancy last worked here, having to take extended sick leave since the end of last year, in this time she has been hugely missed! We will see her off for a happy retirement and, hopefully, welcome her back as a reliever in our classrooms in the months and years to follow.

School Uniform

We are starting a real push to ensure that all Lakeview School students have the full and correct uniform every day at school, from their shoes and socks, to school fleeces. A real advantage of a school uniform is that it takes the pressure off both families and students in regards to what is worn at school; all students have the same clothing and that's the end of the matter. However, I have noticed that the overall standard for many is starting to slip, so from this point onwards all students who come to school in the wrong uniform will need a note from home. Students with notes will be given a uniform pass while the uniform item is organised. Students who don't have a note will receive a uniform withdrawal and will bring home a notice explaining what uniform item needs to be obtained. Thank you all for your support with this; wearing our school uniform with pride reflects positively on Lakeview School.

Kind Regards, Tim Nelson
